

ILC Fourth Quarter 2005 Results

Informatix Laboratories Corp. (ILC), as expected, reported a loss of $(235,107) on revenue of $146,319 for the Quarter Ended December 31, 2005. The same two significant events that resulted in last quarter's loss again caused the large loss for this quarter. ILC continued to work on the Patient Account Management System (PAMS) and is on track to begin implementations early in 2006. As reported in the Second Quarter report, development funding ended for PAMS and due to full development and testing that continued, a significant loss was in
